FULFORD COMMUNITY FUN DAY

13th JULY

FULFORD VILLAGE HALL

2.00 – 5.00 p.m.

Fulford Village Group is organising this event to bring all the different aspects of the village together in order to celebrate the lovely place in which we live.

There is something for everyone, so bring children and grandchildren to enjoy the afternoon. Take a turn on the "Fairground Ride", explore the "Green Goddess" fire engine, try your hand at the coconut shy or "splat the rat" or use your skills on the "penalty shoot-out" - these are just a few of many games available to try! Tea, cakes, crafts, live music and classic vehicles – so much on offer!

In the MAIN ARENA several attractions are taking place:

2.30 MEDIEVAL SWORD FIGHTING KNIGHTS

This promises to be a spectacular show. The children are invited to participate afterwards in the Medieval Tent complete with swords and helmets

3.30 FANCY DRESS PARADE

There are two categories - 5 and under and 5-11 with prizes for the winners and sweets for every entrant. Just turn up on the day in your costume to enter!

3.45 FULFORD DOG SHOW

See the details on the next page for the categories and how to enter

If you prefer a more relaxing afternoon, come and listen to MOORLANDS MUSIC CENTRE WIND BAND at 2.00 p.m. and FULFORD COMMUNITY CHOIR at 3.00 p.m. in the Village Hall with a cup of tea and cake or even a drink from the bar. Afterwards browse the varied ARTISAN STALLS.

THE SHOULDER OF MUTTON

Bring your classic vehicle to the Shoulder of Mutton to SHOW and SHINE (see details on the next page) and with a BBQ and live music we are hoping this will be a lovely day for everyone in Fulford to enjoy.

Please everyone put this date in your diary!

The walk is mainly downhill and with a length of 5 miles will take a little over 2 hours. The footpaths are all in good condition and clear. The walk will, however, involve climbing over stiles and with some uneven ground, sturdy footwear is recommended. The walk is one way so please make your own arrangements for the return journey. If you wish to park a car in Stone beforehand, the Council car parks in Crown Street and Christchurch Way are free on Sundays.
